Unison Parenting

The Comprehensive Guide to Navigating
Christian Parenthood with One Voice

Cecil Taylor

"Wow! I am blown away by Unison Parenting! I've read and studied plenty of parenting guides. But I've never come across a book like this one."

*– Annette Marie Griffin, award-winning author
and speaker*

Signature Talk: "Proactive and Reactive Parenting"

Based on Unison Parenting

Cecil draws from the first two chapters of Unison Parenting to lay a foundation for parents.

- Proactive Parenting is planning a structured policy for how you are going to parent, then implementing it. The parents agree on core values, a framework for behavior, and policies which implement, monitor, and reward or assign consequences for child behaviors. This is steady-state parenting.
- Reactive Parenting addresses when life throws a curve. Cecil shares a model for how parents can remain unified when dealing with the unexpected and the confusing.

Parents should come away with the basics for setting a family framework and some key introductory points for staying in unison.

Reviewers say:

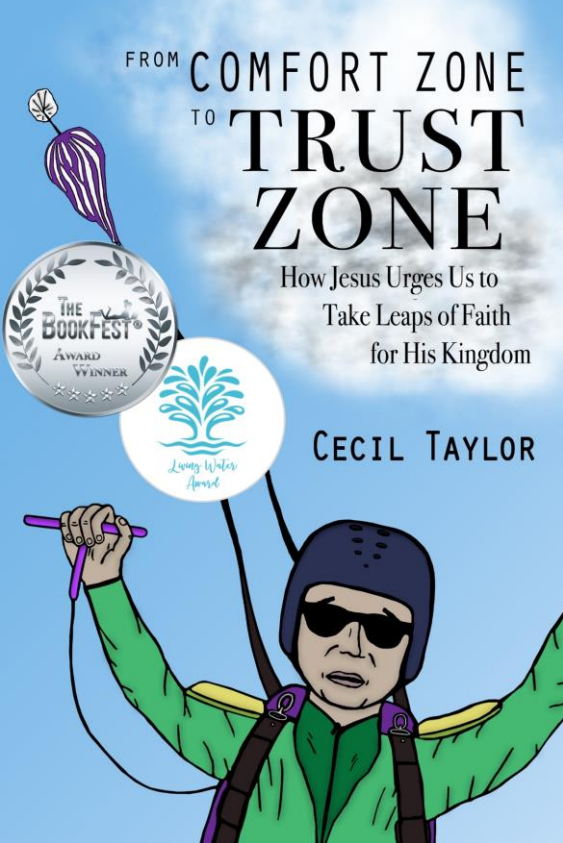

"A must-read!"

"Hope and wisdom"

"A heart for children"

“Cecil is a very relatable, brilliant author. The number one question flowing throughout this book is, ‘Are you ready to move from being in control to letting God control?’ “– Lyvita Brooks, author and podcaster

Signature Talk: “Uncertainty is the Soil in which Faith Grows”

Based on the award-winning book,
From Comfort Zone to Trust Zone

Cecil dives into one of the book’s key chapters, called “Relinquishing Certainty, Embracing Uncertainty.” Perhaps our greatest issue in leaving comfort zones is relinquishing certainty. Jesus never promises the kind of certainty we crave, yet we’re always struggling to attain certainty in this life.

As Hebrews 11:1 states, “Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see.” Cecil builds the case that uncertainty is indeed the soil in which faith grows; therefore, to grow our faith, we must embrace and even seek out uncertainty.

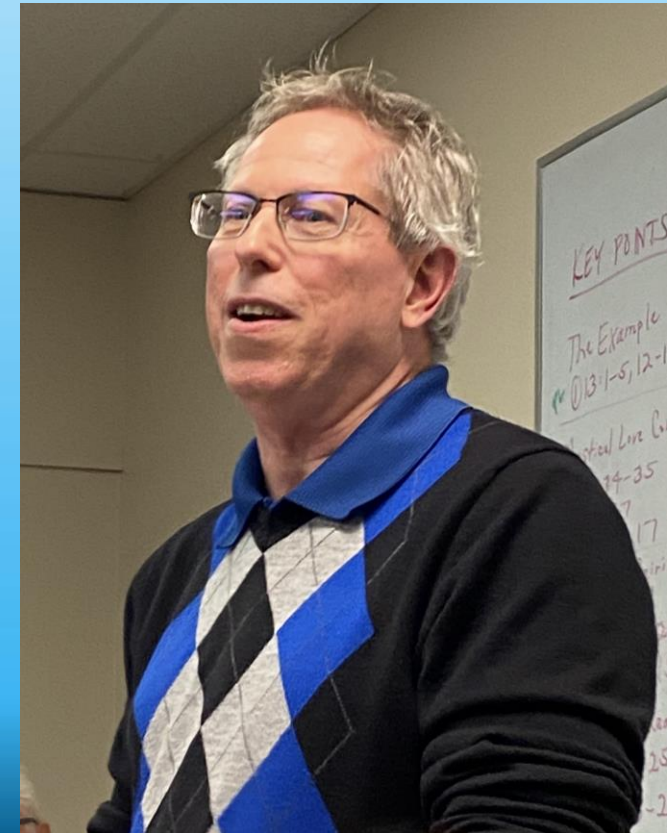

Participants will take away a pattern for being open to uncertainty and risk for Christ.

Reviewers say:

“Clear and engaging”

“Thoughtful and well-researched”

“A growth experience”

The Next Thing

A Christian Model for Dealing with Crisis in Personal Life

Cecil Taylor

Signature Talk: “Live the Life that Is Given”

Based on the award-winning book,
The Next Thing

“Claire had never lived a normal life.” With these words, Cecil begins telling the story of a 13-year-old Cystic Fibrosis victim. After her passing, her mother found this in the girl’s diary: “I will live the life that is given.”

Cecil expands on this touching story from The Next Thing to show that each of us, in our poverty or in our prosperity of wealth, health, time, or options, are called to live the life that is given.

Participants will be inspired by God’s provision in all circumstances and will feel more equipped to address the circumstances in which they find themselves.

Reviewers say:

“Insightful”

“Inspiring!”

“Compassionate”

5. Live the life that is given.

Philippians 4: 11-13

I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. I can do everything through him who gives me strength.

Live Like You're LOVED

Fully accepting that you are:

Loved
Forgiven
Sent Eternal

Cecil Taylor

Author of "The Next Thing"

Signature Talk: "Transformed by God's Love and Forgiveness"

Based on the award-winning book,
Live Like You're Loved

Like the book, this signature talk on God's love and forgiveness fosters more than theological understanding; it encourages and teaches transformation.

Cecil establishes the scriptural truths that God loves and forgives each of us, then shows how to transfer that head knowledge into heart knowledge that makes a difference in the way we live.

Participants will learn steps to transform their lives and be able to identify how to know the transformation is taking effect.

Reviewers say:

"Powerful imagery"

"Uplifting!"

"Life-changing!"

Conditions We Experience as Results of Our Transformation

1. A more joyful spirit.

Zephaniah 3: 17

The Legacy Tree: A Christian Model for a Life of Significance

*"The Legacy Tree is a wonderful study in reminding us who we are as Christians and why we do what we do in His name."
– Joe R., small group leader*

*"What an amazing accomplishment your Legacy Tree series is, and how many lives you will bless with it!"
– Kelly S., class participant*

Signature Talk: "Caring for the Human Forest"

Based on The Legacy Tree

Did you know that trees take care of each other? Using an underground mycorrhizal network, trees can shuttle nutrients and even "messages" to each other. The legacy trees are the most mature trees and tend to the others. The entire forest benefits when trees care for each other.

In this talk, Cecil discusses how to emulate trees in caring for the human forest.

Participants will take away concepts of kindness and vulnerability that enhance human forest relationships.

Reviewers say:

"Highly recommend!"

"Very thought-provoking"

"A wonderful experience!"
